TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

COURSE TITLE: Port & Vessel Security for Public Safety and Maritime Personnel AWR- 144
AWR-144 is officially KLEC certified.

DATE: March 16th, 2011

LOCATION: Campbell County Fire Training Center
10 Training Center Drive
Highland Heights, KY

TIME: 8:00 AM – 4:30 PM

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
AWR 144 Port and Vessel Security for Public Safety and Maritime Personnel has been developed to introduce rural and small agency first responders to the maritime security requirements of the high-risk, regulated facilities in their jurisdictions. In emergency situations, regulated facilities have federally-mandated security and reporting procedures that must be followed. Management of an incident will be more efficient when emergency responders have a good working knowledge of maritime security principles and procedures. Topics covered in this course include:
☐ Characteristics of the U.S. Maritime Transportation System, focusing on the rural component
☐ Threats to the U.S. Maritime Transportation System
☐ Maritime regulations
☐ Security levels
☐ Maritime environment safety issues
☐ Sensitive security information – responder considerations
☐ Transportation Worker Identity Credential (TWIC) response issues for local law enforcement
☐ Homeport and the Area Maritime Security Committee – liaison areas

PARTICIPANT CRITERIA:
This course is designed to give practical information to public safety officials in rural areas who might be called upon to respond to maritime incidents. The primary audience for AWR 144 Port and Vessel Security for Public Safety and Maritime Personnel includes personnel from: law enforcement, fire service, emergency medical services, emergency management, public works, and natural resources.
